

To Whom It May Concern,

Bill Murphy is a fantastic photographer and I absolutely recommend his fabulous work. Bill takes absolutely beautiful photos and is so incredibly easy and wonderful to work with! He has the best attitude and just makes you smile (which is always a great thing for amazing photos). Bill is very laid back yet also very organized. I love that he is not domineering and absolutely willing and wanting to know exactly what you want and how you want it done. It was so refreshing to finally find someone who wanted to work WITH me for my wedding photos rather than tell me how it was done. I appreciate that Bill brings his own artistic eye to the table but also wants to do anything that also strikes your fancy too.

Leading up to the wedding Bill was very helpful in helping me get organized and decide which shots were absolutely necessary and having a check list for the day. Thank goodness he helped me do this before hand because on the day of there is just way too much going on to be able to remember things like this! On the day of he was fantastic and really helped keep my stress levels down. He made everyone feel easy and we had a lot of fun taking pictures with him even in the frantic hours of trying to make sure everything was ready before the wedding. He had a great assistant to help keep everything organized and make sure we had everyone and everything we needed. He made sure to get all the shots on my list so that I ended up with all the special photos I had wanted but totally overlooked or forgot about on my own the day of. He was patient with everyone and everything that came at us that day and stayed late to capture all the important moments of the day. He made everything so easy and light which was so important when I had so many other things on my plate for the day. His help and attitude in the whole wedding process was invaluable.

Bill's photos turned out beautifully and we have so many fun shots to look back on and remember our special day. In fact there were so many amazing shots it was next to impossible to narrow them down to a reasonable number of prints that I wanted done. Bill was very flexible and patient with me in my long decision making process and had an excellent and very user friendly site that allowed me and others to look at the photos and make our decisions for ordering prints. And when I did finally make my decisions he was quick in getting the prints ordered and working with me to find a time to get together as soon as they came in. You also just can't beat his great prices. He is not out to gouge you and his photos are superior to his competitors. Hands down there is not a better photographer for your money in the Denver area. Not only does Bill take absolutely stunningly beautiful pictures, but he is just a wonderful person to be around and work with, and I can not say enough great things to praise him and the fantastic work he does. We will definitely be using him in the future too for family photo shoots and what not. If you have any further questions please don't hesitate to contact me at Rae.Gackenbach@colorado.edu and I hope that you have the wonderful opportunity to work with Bill Murphy on any and all of your special occasions.
